"LIVING UP TO OUR CALL:

BEHAVING CHRISTIANLY IN A NON-CHRISTIAN WORLD" is the theme for the 2012 Oregon Christian Convention. The background text is Ephesians 4:1 where the Apostle Paul challenge "I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called...."

TO HELP US UNPACK THAT THEME will be Dr. Gary Holloway, Executive Director of the World Convention of Christian Churches, Churches of Christ, and Disciples of Christ. Gary lives in Nashville and is a former professor at Lipscomb University; he will be speaking each evening.

The Bible Lecturer will be Dr. K.C. Richardson, who teaches at Hope International University in Fullerton CA. Dr. Richardson will be helping us examine how Paul encouraged the Corinthians to live up to their call in light of the paganism of the city in which they lived.

Mr. Steve Moore, Senior Minister at the Ten Mile Christian Church in Meridian ID, will bring pastorally-oriented messages each convention morning having to do with the application of the theme to several common life situations.

We're looking forward to a spiritually challenging and enriching convention.

See you there!

Frank Musgrave

2012 President, Oregon Christian Convention
