

Seniorfest May 16, Thursday 10 AM to 4 PM

“Theodore Rediscovered Prayer”

OCC is excited to present Doug Priest as the 2019 Seniorfest keynote speaker. If you're wondering what “Theodore Rediscovered Prayer” is about you will have to wait and see. Doug is "so glad to be coming out to Oregon. My Dad's 90th birthday just took place, and my parents will soon be celebrating their 70th wedding anniversary. Seniorfest is right between these two events." According to Doug this will be his “very first seniors event...at least that I can remember.”

You won't want to miss getting to know Doug Priest at the 2019, May 16 Seniorfest!

Since retiring a year and a half ago following a 40+ year ministry with CMF International, Doug Priest has continued his service as an elder at his church in Indianapolis. He spent time this past year with his very first grandchild, Soren, who happily also lives in Indianapolis. Robyn and Doug have been on several road trips for hiking, birding, and visiting friends. He also shares stamps and stories with Gary Tiffin. One of Doug's current ministries is serving on the board of directors of Renewal Neighborhood Ministry which is centered around presenting Christ and the abundant life in one of Indianapolis' most underserved and crime-ridden areas. The ministry is in the process of starting a pre-school to better prepare children to succeed in school.
